

Our Lady of Peace Catholic Primary and Nursery School

Year 6
Term: Pentecost 1

Homework Booklet

Welcome to your homework booklet for this half term.

Login to your 'Times Tables Rock Stars' account to practise your times tables!

Brain Builder:

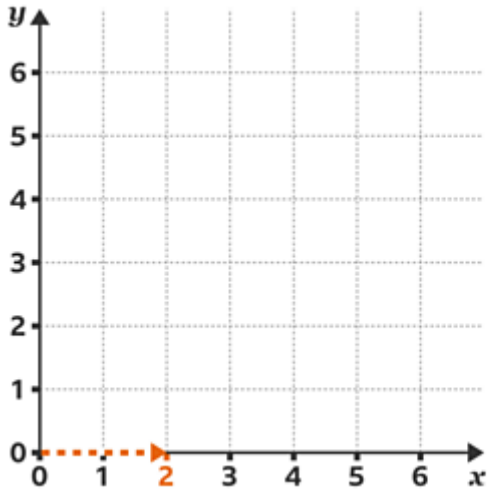

This half term, we will be exploring historically significant people.

Your task is to create a fact file linked to a significant figure from the past.

Be as creative as you can!

To be handed in: Monday 20th May 2024

Maths for Pentecost 1

(2, 5)

Log-in to your 'My Maths' account and, each week, complete the activity set by your teacher.

Spellings

Each week, you are expected to learn the spellings provided.

We will be tested each week on these spellings and then 2 additional spellings which follow the spelling rule.

Week 1:

Words with the suffixes '-ent' and '-ence'

Week 2:

Words ending in '-er', '-or' and '-ar'

Week 3:

Adverbs synonymous with determination ending in '-ly'

Week 4:

Adjectives used to describe settings

Week 5:

Adjectives used to describe feelings

Week 6:

Adjectives used to describe characters

Week 1:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name: _____

excellent	silent	evident	convenient	different
excellence	silence	evidence	convenience	difference

What an _____ idea to hold the party outside!

The _____ from the surveillance footage clearly shows the suspect stealing items of value from the shop.

When it is _____ for you, do you think you could give me a ring as I have something we need to discuss?

The twins are so identical, it is practically impossible to tell the _____ between them; even their parents get them mixed up!

There were so many _____ rides at the park, the little boy just didn't know where to start.

The moment's _____ was broken by an individual clapping, closely followed by more, until the entire stadium were on their feet and celebrating.

The school was noted for its academic _____.

Another word for a public _____ is a toilet!

The trail of footprints leading into the forest was _____ in the heavy snow.

Arlo was _____ because he was reluctant to put his thoughts into words.

Week 2:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name: _____

superior	radiator	interior	shoulder	particular
soldier	customer	popular	calendar	computer

Being a _____ in the British Army has been the highlight of my life so far.

During the rugby match, one of the player's suffered a dislocated _____ which resulted in him needing medical treatment.

As part of good _____ service, a warm and friendly welcome should be forthcoming.

One of the most _____ boy's names in 2020 was Oliver.

Don't lean on the _____; it may still be hot.

I need a far _____ than the one I have now as I need to create presentations and animations as part of my job.

One _____ date jumped out at me on my _____; the day we were to be married was now fast approaching, sending goose pimples all down my arms.

The _____ of my house is all painted white, making it look very clean and spacious.

Week 3:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name: _____

persistently

resolutely intently purposefully

relentlessly

tenaciously repeatedly diligently determinedly

continually

The rescuers continued digging, _____ looking for survivors from the collapsed building.

Conscientious and hardworking, the cleaner _____ and meticulously cleaned her employer's house from top to bottom.

The teacher _____ spoke about the importance of perseverance and determination.

Although it was not always his fault, Adam was _____ late for school as his little brother would not get up.

The politicians _____ opposed the raising of teachers' wages.

If you do something _____, you do it many times.

The residents of the village _____ fought against the closure of its one and only shop.

Edward strode _____ towards the door.

The children listened to the story _____ as the plot was so good!

She waved her hand _____, hoping that her idol would notice her.

Week 4:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name: _____

picturesque	magnificent	regal	tranquil	sinister
unsightly	spectacular	majestic	noiseless	bustling

The Hall of Mirrors in the Palace of Versailles, near Paris, is absolutely _____ .

The market place was _____ with a range of different stalls.

The children’s bedrooms were still an _____ mess even after they had been asked to tidy them up!

Sitting on the beach in the evening, watching the _____ sunset, is my idea of bliss.

I was hoping it would be _____ at the top of the mountain so I could enjoy the peace and quiet.

At the end of the _____ street is a rather grim and _____ looking house, with a sign tied onto the gate telling people to enter at their own peril.

The sea was so _____ that we were able to take full advantage of snorkelling and experienced the _____ sights of the different sea creatures living in the coral reef.

The hotel looked very _____ as it was all decorated ready for the wedding party to arrive.

Week 5:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name:

euphoric	delighted	despondent	incensed	terrified
jittery	apprehensive	optimistic	positive	sanquine

Emma was very _____ about bungee jumping off the bridge; it was a long way down.

When the final whistle blew at the end of the game, the winning team were _____ because they had won!

_____ yet determined to overcome a lifetime's fear, the elderly lady finally boarded the aeroplane for her first ever flight.

After failing his driving test for the fifth time, Hari was feeling quite _____ about it all.

Dad was _____ when his baby daughter said her first word.

When the verdict was read out in court, the awaiting crowd were _____ with rage by what they heard.

Going to the vet is a bit of a battle with our dog, as he becomes very _____ and refuses to move.

Be _____ and believe that you will achieve a _____ outcome.

He seemed quite _____ about his chances of success.

Week 6:

Can you identify the missing words in these sentences?

Name: _____

amiable	obnoxious	disagreeable	grotesque	repugnant
exquisite	courageous	gargantuan	valiant	delightful

Saint George was a _____ and _____ knight who fought _____ dragons to protect villagers from their deadly rampages.

He was the most _____ and _____ person I've ever had the mis-fortune to meet; he objected to absolutely everything I suggested.

She has the best taste when it comes to fashion; it is _____ .

I had afternoon tea yesterday with my _____ and _____ friends.

_____ and _____ are the first two words which spring to mind after watching the competitive eater devour forty nine hot dogs in ten minutes.